Reviews

Adventure of the Cardboard Box

By Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

Miss Susan Cushing has received a very strange and terrifying package. Two human ears. Scotland Yard passes it off as nothing more than a cruel practical joke, but Sherlock Holmes thinks differently. There have been rumors, commotion, and he goes to find out what's behind it. As always, Sherlock's brilliant mysticisms are very engaging. Some of the characters he comes to are very impressive and different.

Standing in the Light

Mary Pope Osborne

This book was moving. It was a fictional story of a 13 year old girl who was abducted by Indians. After her she was rescued she could never live a normal life. This coming was epic.

Flipped
 Wendelin Van Draanen
 This is an adorable read about first love and dealing with the feelings one has when it occurs. I related to this book. It was also a quick and interesting read told from two points of view: Bryce, a guy, and Lulianne, a girl. Love it!

The Red Pyramid Rick Riordan

Carter and Sadie Kane are brother and sister. They have been separated for 6 years, ever since their mother died in a mysterious accident in London. Carter traveled the world with his father, who is secretly an banished Egyptian magician. Sadie lived with her grandparents in London. Then, Mr. Kane comes to London, on Christmas Eve, to visit Sadie with Carter. He takes them to a museum, where he tries to summon Osiris and instead releases 5 Egyptian gods: Set, Osiris, Isis, Nephthys, and Horus. Isis' spirit enters Sadie, Horus' enters Carter, and Osiris' enters Mr. Kane. I won't tell you where Set and Nephthys go, because that would spoil the story. Mr. Kane is captured by Set in the museum and the children are arrested by the police. Their uncle takes them to his mansion in Brooklyn. They are attacked, Amos disappears, and the children embark on their quest, led by the cat goddess Bast, to stop Set and save their family and the world, while being chased by demons and magicians.

Things We Would Change

- * More implementation and transition time to get acquainted with software.
- * Required staff training – review tutorials
- * An option in Evanced for staff to comment on teen reviews for readers' advisory purposes.

Teens, Summer, & Reading – Oh My!

*Oh the possibilities . . .

BiblioCommons Summer Sites Implementation Survey 2013

Basic Program Details

This survey will provide us with the information we need to set-up your Summer Sites. Please be sure to fill out the survey as completely as possible. Be sure to complete the survey once for each Summer Site your library is using (up to three per library: kids, teens, and adults).

* 1. Name of Library:

Please complete one survey for each of the Summer Sites your library is using.

2. I am completing information for the ____ Summer Site in this survey.

The screenshot shows a BiblioCommons interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with tabs: Summer Reading, My Shelf, Badges, Staff Book Picks (labeled B), Events, and For Parents (labeled C). Below the navigation bar, there is a section titled 'My Summer Reading Shelf' (labeled A). This section includes a 'Narrow Shelf' sidebar with filters for Format (Any) and Audience (Any), and a main area with an 'Add New Title' button. The main area shows '104 items' and 'Page 1 of 11'. There are also social media icons and a 'More' link.

3. Program Name (Item A in image above):

This name will appear in the 'add to my shelf' drop down, and the name of the user's shelf.

Length restriction: 25 characters

4. Program Dates:

Please provide the program start and end dates. These are the dates of when your program will be live to the public.

Program start date:
(mm/dd/yyyy)

Program end date:
(mm/dd/yyyy)
