

WHEREAS, DIANE FINK has been engaged with the Ohio Public Library Information Network (OPLIN) Board of Trustees from their very first meeting on July 11, 1995, and

WHEREAS she helped the first OPLIN director set up the first OPLIN office, and

WHEREAS she has continuously been an indispensable asset to all four OPLIN directors since then, and

WHEREAS she has guided OPLIN through the intricacies of state government finances for seventeen years, and

WHEREAS she has devoted unwavering attention to every detail of the OPLIN budget through all those years, and

WHEREAS she has always quickly and efficiently resolved any and all financial issues between OPLIN and vendors and libraries, and

WHEREAS she has constantly been a champion for OPLIN in dealings with other state agencies, and

WHEREAS the OPLIN Board and staff will deeply miss her outstanding services as she begins her well-deserved retirement,

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that on the 9th day of December, Two Thousand and Eleven, the members of the Board of Trustees of the Ohio Public Library Information Network recognize the significant contributions made to OPLIN, to public libraries, and to library service by DIANE FINK, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Board extends its most sincere thanks and appreciation to DIANE FINK for her continued service to that Board.
